<sup>2</sup>The number of OASDI disabled adult child beneficiaries aged 18-64 also receiving SSI was estimated based on the number of such beneficiaries aged 18 or older for the same year and on the comparative size of the two groups at the end of 1988.

available. Instead the average of the September 1989 and March 1990 numbers was used.

<sup>4</sup>Due to the availability of improved administrative data, approximately 35,000 children aged 18-21 were reclassified as adult recipients in June 1993 because they were no longer attending school.

Note: For more recent data, see table 1.E2 in the Social Security Bulletin.
